Please rate the curriculum in the following areas. Place an X in the appropriate column.

| Evaluation Criteria                                                                                       | Good | Adequate | Inadequate | Unacceptable |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|----------|------------|--------------|
| The curriculum meets a well-defined educational need.                                                     |      |          |            |              |
| The content is technically sound.                                                                         |      |          |            |              |
| The language is appropriate for the intended audience (e.g., no confusing jargon).                        |      |          |            |              |
| The curriculum uses a variety of appropriate instructional methods (e.g., hands-on activities, etc.).     |      |          |            |              |
| The graphical elements (e.g., tables, charts, images, etc.) effectively communicate the desired concepts. |      |          |            |              |
| The lessons or modules have a consistent "look and feel."                                                 |      |          |            |              |
| There is a logical flow between lessons or modules.                                                       |      |          |            |              |
| The curriculum package is well-organized.                                                                 |      |          |            |              |
| The curriculum is designed for easy adoption and use by educators in their educational programs.          |      |          |            |              |
| The guidelines for educators are complete and easy to follow.                                             |      |          |            |              |

Please provide comments for the author(s) on a separate sheet and mark on the curriculum, where appropriate. Please return Form B, your comment sheet, and the curriculum to lead author.
